Monsignsr Capel Defends His Character—Disastrous Expedition.—In a New Role.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1.—The theft of $440,000 from the Auer Incandescent Light Co. by Tyngal Palmer, a former Philadelphia newspaper man, in which he was joined by a hotel keeper named Freitas of Rio Janeiro, has just been brought to light. The company is owned solely by A. O. Granger, president, and ex-Senator Joseph M. Gazzum, vice-president. They formed the South American Weisbach Incandescent Co., and sent young Palmer to Rio to boom the invention. He and Freitas sold the patent right for $510,000 in gold, and upon Palmer's return here reported the sale as having been made for $80,000, of which $10,000 was expended in his salary, expenses and commission. The theft was not learned until two other men were sent to Brazil on a second mission, although reports reached the ears of the company. Palmer was sent to England to negotiate securities of one of ex-Senator Gazzam's iron companies, and upon demanding a higher commission was dismissed. Palmer cannot be returned from England, but action is being taken to recover the sum which he expended in buying farms for his relatives. His second trip was made to Brazil to sell the improvements of the original Weisbach invention, which caused the title to be changed to the Auer Company.

Justice in a New Role.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 1.—It has just leaked out that a case lately tried in the Supreme Court here was decided by chance instead of by deliberation in the jury room. E. W. Wright sued to recover from Daniel G. Abbott, of Lawrence, a horse which both claimed. It was the second trial of the case and the testimony lasted several days. One of the jurymen had been excused to go to the grand army encampment, and as both litigants were willing the case was left in the hands of the other eleven. After comparing views and exhausting arguments, the jurors reported that they were unable to agree, but they were sent back by the judge to make another effort to reach a unanimous conclusion. Nine were for the defendants and two for the plaintiff from the first, and after further balloting. Then the jury decided to find a verdict by lot. Eleven ballots were put in a hat, nine marked "defendant" and two marked "plaintiff." The first one drawn was to determine the verdict, and it was one of the two marked "plaintiff," and the verdict was rendered accordingly.

A Bean Worth Looking After.

SACO, Me., Oct. 1.—Dr. E. A. Bean, of Hartford, Me., is a claimant for $2,000,000 left by T. C. Bean, who died suddenly at Bonham, Texas, in July, 1888. He says Thos. C. Benn, his brother, was born in Limerick, in this county, in 1819, and when 20 years old started for the West to seek his fortune. He was last seen by a Maine man in New York, but he never wrote home and was never afterwards heard of by his family. About four years ago Dr. Bean learned of the death of a man named Thos. C. Bean in Texas, and at once employed a Texas attorney to look into the matter to see if the deceased was his long-lost brother. He is confident that the millionaire, Bean of Texas, is no other than T. C. Bean, of Limerick.

Disastrous Boiler Explosion.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 1.—At 6:30 this morning, just after the night turn left the mill, and before the other reported for work, two large boilers in the carbon iron works at 32nd and Smaliman streets exploded with terrific force, scattering sections of the boilers and bricks throughout the mill, in which several hundred men were employed during working hours. The mill was also filled with scalding steam and natural gas, which escaped from the broken pipes and then exploded, causing nearly as much damage to the building and machinery as did the collapse of the boilers. The damage to the workshop will aggregate several thousand dollars. No one was killed, and so far as known no person was seriously injured.

The Merry Maiden and the Bugs.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Oct. 1.—Louisa Hicks, a chambermaid at the Genesee Hotel, is in the hospital recovering from an attack of hysterics, which for a time threatened her life. One of the guests of the Genesee is A. E. Blan, a drummer for a New York house. He had his room full of samples of toy snakes, alligators, bugs and spiders, which run around when wound up. He was showing them to a customer yesterday, and left them running in all directions in his room. The chambermaid entered the room and fell in a hysterical fit amid the bugs and spiders, screaming at the top of her voice. She was delirious all night.

LOCKPORT, N.Y., Oct. 1.—The remains of Bass, the ossified man and museum freak, who died a few days ago, were placed to-day in an iron casket and bolted so that museum freak hunters cannot steal it.

Next Year's Immense Strike.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Oct. 1.—The switchmen of Buffalo are utterly demoralized and many are still out of work. The defeat of Sweeny has softened them somewhat. It is the talk among them that plans are being made for an immense strike next year, which will include all branches of railway employees. It will be directed first at the Reading, Central and Erie, and will spread all over the country. This is the platform on which the new grand master was elected.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 1.—J. W. McColl, barrister, was married yesterday in the Presbyterian church by Rev. T. Scouler, to Miss Grace Emilia Parker, daughter of the late Samuel Parker, this city.

Roome and Bonner came up for election and trial before Judge Bole on Friday (yesterday) afternoon. Both elected for speedy trials and pleaded guilty. Roome looked very pale and nervous, while Bonner apparently did not mind the stare of the crowd so much. An eloquent appeal was made on their behalf by Mr. McPhillips, their lawyer. Judgment was reserved until Monday.

NANAIMO NOTES.

The Smallpox Patient—Funeral of Peter Sabiston—A Bazaar.

NANAIMO, Oct. 1.—The tramp who is suffering from a severe attack of smallpox gives the name of Gilbert McGibbon. He claims he walked all the way from Victoria, and when there he stayed at the Cosmopolitan hotel. He claims he fell all right when he left the capital, but the dirty condition he was found to be in was almost sufficient to breed any disease. Fortunately he was arrested before he could come in contact with any of the citizens. The people he had been staying with in Cedar District were brought to the pest house and placed in quarantine. The scene at the pest house is in appearance quite a camp, as there are about 14 persons there beside the seven special constables. The government will find the bill for this case rather a heavy one, and many of the ratepayers are rejoicing that the burden will not be upon them.

The remains of John Cavallero, who was murdered, were buried yesterday.

The ladies aid of the Wallace Methodist church will hold a bazaar on Monday, October 10, in the school room, for the sale of work. During the afternoon the admission will be free, but those who take in the entertainment in the evening will have to pay 25 cents, which will be devoted to special purposes.

The funeral of the late Peter Sabiston took place from his residence on Wallace street this afternoon. The remains were followed by a large host of friends who had known him during his life time. He was buried under the auspices of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, of which he was a prominent member for many years. Canon Good officiated at the burial.

Dr. Rice has been appointed physician at the quarantine house, and took up his residence there yesterday.

Capel Still a Poor Bachelor.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1.—In a card published here to-day, Monsignor T. J. Capel, the Catholic prelate whose meteoric flight over this country a few years ago, excited wild comment, denies the recently published statements concerning him. He says the statement about his marriage is maliciously false. He is not and never was interested in fast horses. He is not estranged from Rome and is still a priest. He is not rich, but poor, and Rome never paid him anything for his services.

Fell to Instant Death.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 1.—Mr. J. Mercers, one of the largest tobacco merchants of the state, was instantly killed at his residence on Madison street to-day. Mr. Mercers has been sick for some time. An attack of vertigo, to which his illness had made him subject, overtook him while he was standing at a window, and losing his balance he fell to the street, crushing his skull.

Davy Jones's Locker.

CHARLESTON, S.C., Oct. 1.—Captain Hubbert of the steamer Planter from Georgetown, reports that three bodies of white men have been washed ashore on Magnolia beach, and that much wreckage, including oars, a life preserver and a ship's stores have been found on that and neighboring islands. Nothing has so far been found to identify the ship or the men.

Romance of Ready-Made Clothes.

BLUFFTON, O., Oct. 1.—Last March John Fruchey found in the pocket of a pair of trousers he purchased at Lima, O., a note signed by Clara Overton, of Woonsocket, Mass. A correspondence and engagement followed and yesterday Miss Overton arrived here to be married. The couple had never met before.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Forty carloads of merchandise in the Nickle Plate Railway company's freight yard at the extreme limits of the city were destroyed by fire at 4 o'clock this morning. The loss will exceed $100,000. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed it was from sparks from a passing engine.

The Tax on Commerce.

MONTREAL, Oct. 1.—The recently imposed business tax was the subject of a discussion at the meeting of the Chambre de Commerce yesterday. A petition was receive from a number of wholesale merchants asking the Chambre de Commerce to use its influence to have the law so amended at next session that the tax would not be detrimental to trade as at present. The petition was referred to the next general meeting.

Wouldn't Say What it Was

OTTAWA, Oct. 1.—Sir John Thompson informed the TIMES' correspondent at the close of the cabinet meeting this afternoon, that neither the Manitoba school question nor the Chief Justiceship of the Supreme Court was considered at the meeting. All the members except Senator Smith were present. The cabinet will sit again this afternoon and it will be the last meeting the premier will attend before going to England.

Death of a Pioneer.

CLINTON, B.C., Oct. 1.—P. P. Ward, an old resident of Lillooet district and a shareholder in the Bonanza mine of Lillooet, died suddenly yesterday morning while driving from Lillooet to Clinton. Death was caused by the bursting of a blood vessel. The remains were taken back to Lillooet for burial.

WANTED IN PORTLAND.

The Defaulting Treasurer of a Bankrupt Company Caught in Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Oct. 1.—H. B. Wall, formerly secretary-treasurer of Ainslie Lumber Co., Portland, Oregon, which suspended on July 7th last, was arrested this morning, on a dispatch from Sheriff Kelly, of Portland, but released again on the same instructions. The company's affairs are in the hands of a receiver, and Wall stayed eight weeks after the failure to assist in winding up the business. He then went East and was notified by the manager at Portland that other officers of the company were arrested, and he had better return. In response to this he came back, and is now on his way to Portland. The Bank of British Columbia is said to be interested in the failure.

The Empress of India, on this trip, dropped overboard ocean current report bottles, that observations may be taken of the rate and direction of the North Pacific currents.

Complaints are numerous among the longshoremen that the captains of sailing ships are farming out the work of the crew to stevedores in discharging cargo. Two seamen on the Fernbank refused duty this morning on that account.

The Whaling Catch.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—The steam whaler Mary D. Hume, which it was stated a few days ago had made a phenomenal catch of 38 whales during her two years' cruise in northern waters, arrived from Dutch Harbor, Ounalaska, this morning, having made the passage in fourteen days. She reports the follas the catch of the whaling fleet up to August first: Balena, 1; Bounding Billows, 4; Helen, 1; Belvider, 3; Orca, 2; Andrew Hicks, 2; Josephine, 4; Balugal Hunter, 1; Karluk, 3; Horatio, Alice, Knowlosl, Newport, 3. Thirteen others were "clean." The Balera, Norwhal, Karluk, Newport and Grampus will spend the winter in the North.

Pleasant for the Pilots.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 30.—The Pilot's Association of New York has won a victory, as the following order shows: Navy department, Washington, D. C., September 27th, 1892. All existing orders and regulations restricting the employment of pilots by commanding officers of vessels of war are hereby revoked. Commanding officers will employ pilots whenever, in their judgment their employment is necessary. (Signed) B. F. Tracy, Secretary of the Navy. This will be cheerful news to pilots in all maritime cities and especially in New York and the east, where naval vessels are constantly moving in and out of dangerous places. It means considerable additional expense for them. Naval officers will also be pleased with the secretary's new order; they are now permitted to use their own judgment as to occasions when pilots are necessary. While personally it may induce some commanders to navigate their own ships in and out of dangerous harbors, the majority will doubtless be only too glad to escape the responsibility for accidents which are liable to happen even with expert pilots aboard.

ONE MORE SHIP RETURNS.

Arrival this Morning of the Schooner Oscar and Hattie.

The sealing schooner Oscar and Hattie, Capt. Tuttle, arrived in port this afternoon. She was outside last evening, but could not get in until she got a tow. She passed three or four schooners in the straits, but Capt. Tuttle did not know the names of any of them. He supposes one of them to be the Sea Lion. The Oscar and Hattie was seized at Attou Island, where she went for water, by the U.S.S. Mohican. She was sent to Ounalaska in charge of a prize crew and she was there 10 days and she saw the Henrietta towed in by the U.S. cruiser Yorktown. H.M.S. Melpomene towed her out to sea and the hawser parted in a gale. Her run down was uneventful.

The Oscar and Hattie was unfortunate this season. It will be remembered that Capt. Gault, her first mate and five men were drowned off the Oregon coast this spring. She took about 500 seals in the season.

YESTERDAY'S RACES.

There was a very good attendance at the Driving Park yesterday afternoon to witness the races held in connection with the exhibition.

The trotting race for horses which had never taken part in any race was won by Bowker's chestnut gelding, Jack, in three consecutive heats; the time being 3:02, 3:07 and 3:03. The winner deserved all the applause he received, as he trotted the three heats without a skip. Lawrence's black gelding took second place in the first heat, but after that he was out of the race altogether, Lebasco being left to trot the race out with Jack.

Jim Murphy, Domino and Johnny Allen were entered for the half mile and repeat. They made a game fight for first place. Allen won the first dash, Murphy taking the repeats.

The polo pony race brought out two starters, R. Jones' Bob and J. Meldrum's Bess. Bob took it into his head to kick before he had reached the quarter, and he stopped for that purpose. Meanwhile Bess had got to the front, and she came under the wire several hundred yards in the lead.

Major Dupont's Plunger and Jim Shaw's Domino were entered for the high jumping contest. Plunger was an old hand at jumping and easily cleared a five foot rail. Domino, although he had never seen a hurdle before, went pluckily to work, and the big horse did not have it all his own way, although he did win.

TO-DAY'S RACE.

The events on this afternoon's programme were for faster horses, and therefore more interest was taken in them. There was a very large attendance at the track, the grand stand being well filled.

SHELL VERSUS LAPSTREAK.

A boat race was arranged this afternoon between Alex. McLean, of New Westminster, and Charles Bush, of the Victoria fire department. It is for $50 a side and McLean gives Bush a start of 50 yards and rows in a skiff while he allows his opponent to use a shell. The race will take place on Monday evening. This is the last race in which Bush will row, and on Saturday next his shell will be raffled.

The Daily News says: Russian exploration in Thibet reveals that on the northern slopes of Kuen Lun exist extensive gold fields, rumors as to the wealth of which penetrated Russia as far back as the seventeenth century. The extent of these fields, which are worked by natives, comprise about 90 square versts, but in reality their extent must be far greater. The natives at present extract the gold by two methods; by washing and by winnowing without the aid of water. The outcome by the latter means is disproportionate, although this is the system chiefly in vogue. The proportion of gold varies in different parts of Kuen Lun.

TALKING ABOUT QUARANTINE.

The Subject Discussed at the Meeting of the Dominion Medical Association.

Dr. Milne's Efforts on Behalf of British Columbia—The Case of the Lepers.

From Our Own Correspondent.]

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.—I sent the TIMES briefly by telegraph the result of the meeting of the Canadian Medical Association, which was held here in the railway committee room of the House of Commons, and which came to a close last evening. The Province of British Columbia was well represented. Dr. Milne, M. P. P., Victoria's health officer, was on hand when the meeting opened, and was assiduous in his efforts to see that the Province of British Columbia was awarded that to which she was entiled. At the very outset it was proposed by Dr. Campbell of Montreal, in the way of a suggestion to the nominating committee, that the next meeting of the association should be held in Victoria. Dr. Milne at once seized the opportunity of making a brief but appropriate speech in reference to the advantages which the association would derive from a visit to the Pacific slope. He assured them of a hospitable welcome and of every convenience for the transaction of business during their brief stay in the west, should they decide on holding their next annual meeting there. The doctor was placed on the nominating committee, and although he urged the claims of Victoria—which will no doubt have the effect of inducing the medical fraternity to go to your city later on—still a majority declared in favor of London as the next place of meeting.

THE CHOLERA SCARE.

At the afternoon session of the first day's meeting an interesting and rather animated discussion took place on cholera, to which Hon. John Carling was invited. Dr. Bryce, who is secretary of the Ontario Board of Health, opened the ball by pointing out the position of the various quarantine stations on the Atlantic coast, both in Canada and the United States. Not one of them, he said, was properly supplied with the necessary rapid disinfecting apparatus. Another great drawback was the lack of any proper means to take away the healthy passengers from any vessel which might be infected. He described the inhumanity which occurred, and which he witnessed at New York, in this regard. What Canada needed, and what the Government ought at once to decide upon, was how much money they could spend, and then they ought to select the defence points, put them in proper condition, both in respect to quarantine and accommodation for immigrants, and once this was done every vessel ought to land at these points for inspection and detention, if necessary.

DR. MILNE'S SPEECH.

The opportunity of saying a few words in behalf of a better system of quarantine, etc., on the Pacific coast was at once accepted by Dr. Milne. He began by referring to the position of affairs at the time the Empress of Japan brought in smallpox to the country. On that occasion the Chinese passengers were detained in quarantine but the Japanese were allowed to go. At that time there was an outbreak of smallpox in Japan. It was absurd to let the Japanese go and detain the Chinese. One peculiar thing was that in a very short time no less than three grocers were down with smallpox. In his opinion they caught the malady from tea imported from Japan. That showed the necessity of a proper system of disinfection. The quarantine arrangements were somewhat improved at Albert Head, but there was room for more improvements. He impressed upon the minister to see that this was attended to. In the speech which Mr. Carling made afterwards he assured Dr. Milne that the Pacific would be guarded against the disease as well as the Atlantic coast. At the close of the meeting a committee was appointed to draft resolutions on the matter. Dr. Milne was appointed one of the committee. It should have been said that Dr. Milne suggested an embargo on Chinese and Japanese immigrants.

REPORT ON CHOLERA.

On the following day the committee submitted the following:

1. That in the opinion of the association the time has come when the public health interests demand the appointment of a permanent executive officer, whose duties will be to supervise all matters relating to the public health, such as quarantine and vital statistics, which are by law laid upon the federal government.

2. That the quarantine regulations should be made applicable to the protection of the interior borders of Canada, and that houses for the detention and observation of suspects, and hospitals for treatment of the sick, as also disinfecting appliances, be supplied and equipped at Niagara Falls and similar border points.

3. That in view of the constant danger from the clothing and baggage of immigrants, drying chambers should be constructed on every passenger ship wherein the baggage and clothing may be quickly dried, after having been placed in disinfectant solutions, and that their enforced use should be required of every ship master.

4. That isolation hospitals should be erected on the decks of all passenger ships for the treatment of those sick of suspected contagious disease.

5. That all passenger vessels require to be supplied with water sterilizing apparatus for drinking purposes.

6. That at quarantine stations all personal clothing, bed clothes, towels, etc., from the sick should be placed in disinfecting solutions, thereafter to be placed in the disinfecting chamber or treated in other necessary way, and the mattresses, pillows, etc., be burned immediately after use, unless steam disinfecting appliances for their proper disinfection be at hand.

7. That at whatever ports immigrants are permitted to land it is absolutely necessary that the following facilities be supplied:—

RESTRICTIONS.

Houses for the proper accommodation of suspects for both cabin and steerage passenger.

Proper and sufficient bath rooms at every station where suspects can be readily, comfortably and safely washed.

That a certain supply of wholesome water be always available.

That modern latrines with proper conveniences for the observation of the dejection of suspects be supplied, and that after disinfection the sewage therefrom be disposed of in a manner that will insure perfect safety.

Modern steel chambers for disinfecting, to be supplied with superheated steam for the rapid disinfection of passengers' effects.

That furnace and fan be fitted up on either wharf or steamer, whereby the holds and cargoes of ships can be readily disinfected.

That an ample supply of bed and clothing be provided at every station for the necessities of persons landed from ships.

That means for the safe and speedy

DISPOSAL OF THE DEAD

have been carefully considered by your committee, and it is of opinion that the ordinary method of burial employed in the past at such stations as Grosse Isle may, if continued, be attended with danger and would tend to render such stations unsuited for further use as such. Under these circumstances, it is believed that cremation of the dead is the best way to secure the safety of the living.

That owing to the necessity for the accommodation of the healthy passengers detained at quarantine, it is most desirable that the Government at once secure islands, if possible, or other isolated location at Grosse Isle and other quarantines where those whose detention may be necessary shall be comfortably provided for, and for this purpose buildings similar to summer hotels should be erected and maintained.

That in view of the imminent danger of cholera reaching America in 1893, this association is of the opinion that government should prohibit immigration to Canada from infected countries.

That in the opinion of this association it is a matter for regret that though it is 25 years since confederation no government executive officer has yet been appointed to take charge of quarantine and other federal interests; that this association urgently presses the immediate appointment of such an officer in order that the foregoing recommendations may be carried out with the greatest possible expedition, and that such officer be a man of the highest scientific attainments, a well-known sanitarian and one devoted to the work.

VICTORIA LEPERS.

Before leaving Dr. Milne had an interview with Mr. Carling in reference to the case of seven lepers now isolated on Darcey Island, about 17 miles from Victoria, and being cared for by that city. There appears to be some question as to jurisdiction in such cases, between the Dominion, the province and the municipality, and it was on this point the interview took place. All matters of health belong to the province and the municipality, but leprosy was never contemplated by the framers of the law. Quarantine belongs solely to the Dominion, and Dr. Milne, speaking for the city of Victoria, contended that the lepers were under constant quarantine and should certainly be cared for by the Dominion. This principle is recognized in the support of the lazaretto at Tracadie by the Federal Government, and should also apply to the Pacific coast. Another point is that as the Dominion Government receives the cash from these Chinese as duty when they enter this country, it should certainly bear the burden of supporting them when striken with leprosy. The Minister acknowledged the force of the contention and notwithstanding that it was surrounded by many difficulties, promised the usual ministerial consideration.

It is not often that one man can crowd so much hard work into so short a space of time as the doctor did during his stay here. If the grievances from which the province has been suffering had been presented to the Government in the same quiet yet firm manner they would have been remedied long before now. British Columbia representatives, however, have been imbued with the notion that they must only speak in praise of the administration and hold their peace whenever Sir John Thompson thought fit to say "That will do." The Chemist and the Explorer.

When Stanley returned from his last expedition to Africa he told the world that he had found an inexhaustible supply of rubber trees in the interior of that dark continent. This at the time was intensely interesting, but it has lost very much of its interest since Rigby, the chemist, has made it possible for us to have tweeds, worsteds and any of the various wool materials from which our clothing is made, rendered perfectly waterproof, without changing either their appearance or the porus nature of the cloth in the slightest degree. Ladies or gentlemen may now have an outer garment made from material to their taste, which will keep out the rain without their experiencing any of the discomforts produced by a rubber coat.

Uganda to be Evacuated.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Lord Rosebery, Secretary of State for Foreign Affrirs, has notified the British East Africa Co. that the Government will agree to the evacuation of Uganda, if this be necessary in view of the company's financial condition. In order to avoid the danger of immediate evacuation the Government will give the time needful for the arrangement of the abandonment of the country, and will contribute to the cost of occupation until the end of March, without incurring, however, the slightest further responsibility. If the company thinks that nothing will be gained by delay, Lord Rosebery said, the company must leave the country by New Year's.

Gradually Easing Off.

HAMBURG, Sept. 30.—The number of fresh cases of cholera to-day has been 63, or 67 fewer than yesterday; the number of deaths 27, or seven fewer than yesterday. The expected relief of the hospitals has come with welcome suddenness and many volunteer nurses and physicians are retiring from the service. Only 982 cases are under treatment to-night, and in half of these the patients are already convalescent. Twenty infected houses have already been razed to the ground. In St. Pauli ten saloon and cafes, which did business throughout the worst of the plague, have been closed for disinfection. The schools will be opened on October 10, on which date all the fugitives will probably have returned. In the last five days two or three thousand persons who left early in September have come back to town.

Roman Catholic Lord Mayor.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Archbishop Vaughan, of Westminster, having been asked as to his views of the position taken by Alderman Knill, Roman Catholic, elected yesterday Lord Mayor of London, replied that, as a general principle, a Roman Catholic may not take part in the services of a false religion. Possibly there might be cases where officials could without harm attend such services, but they should never even appear to enter into communion.

George Bradbury and George Tremer, of Sarnia, each aged five, have been drowned in a well. The latter fell in first, and his companion attempted to help him out, falling in also.

A Clinton firm reports that it has secured in the neighborhood of 30,000 barrels of apples, at prices ranging from $1 to $1.50. They are intended for Liverpool, Glasgow and Edinburgh.

The first sample of new Manitoba spring wheat was received at the New York Produce Exchange on the 15th. It was raised in Deloraine county, and is described as of fine quality, full berry and bright color.

While undergoing repairs the other day the walls of Carter, Son & Co.'s mill at St. Mary's collapsed and 6000 bushels of wheat were mixed up with the stone and mortar. Loss was between $700 and $800.

Some 60 natural gas wells will supply Port Colborne and the village of Humberstone, two miles distant. Pipes have also been laid to Buffalo, N. Y., which city will draw a large supply. The manufacturers of the locality are said to be well pleased with its heating qualities. The large establishment of the Ontario Silver Company at Humberstone uses nothing else, and the manager speaks highly of its advantages over coal. If the supply is continuous, the whole district will soon be using it.

THE OKANAGAN VALLEY.

Events in the Inland Country—Trouble With Bush Fires.

From the Vernon News.]

Enderby horsemen have decided to hold a race meeting on Tuesday, October 18. Mr. C. E. Costerton is secretary.

The Bloomington hunting club party before their departure presented Mr. Price Ellison with a handsome gun and 500 rounds of ammunition.

The friends and employees of Messrs. B. and L. Lequime, at the Mission, were pleased to extend a welcome home to Mr. Barnard Lequime and his bride, who arrived by Monday morning's train from San Francisco.

A car-load of mining machinery from the American side came through in bond by Monday's train, on the S. & O., from an American firm, for use on the Col. Hammond mine. U. S. Customs Officer Scott came through with the car to release it.

Hunting for change has become a task in Vernon, and so much time is squandered in this useless pursuit, that business men will almost have to take cognizance of it in their expense accounts. Bank checks are common currency and everyone is praying for the starting of a bank.

A party from the coast came in last week and slaughtered 160 chickens near the head of the lake, lugging them off, no doubt to adorn the butcher stalls of Vancouver. Here we are pleased to have visitors come for a few days' sport, but pot-hunters of this stamp are more difficult to appreciate.

Last week a bush fire which was started on the mountain spread very rapidly and threatened to do a great amount of mischief. Fortunately it was noticed in time to prevent it from destroying a large quantity of hay on Mr. Price Ellison's ranch. In parts the fire was burning the soil to the depth of about a foot, but by hard work and observing the precaution to plough around the property it was stopped before much harm was done. The rain of last week had a good effect in staying its progress.

Three charges were laid against Leon Lequime of the Mission by Mr. Thompson, steamboat inspector, and they came up before Magistrate Lumby. One was a charge of carrying passengers on the steamer Okanagan in March last without a certificate, the other two being to the effect that the name of the steamer was changed illegally and that no inspection had been made. A fine of $50 was imposed on the first charge and the other two were withdrawn. The hull of the steamer has been at the bottom of the lake for some time, and the machinery was burned up in Lequime's sawmill.

Spallumcheen council at its first meeting on the 24th appointed H. Seydel clerk, instructing him also to act as assessor and collector for the present. The following valuations of land for the purpose of assessment were adopted: Cultivated land, including hay production bottom-land, to be assessed at $35 per acre, cultivated light bench-land, at $30 per acre, bottom-land under brush, at $17 per acre, timber and range land, at from $2.50 to $10 per acre, wild land, to be taxed at the rate of two and one half per cent. upon the assessed value.

Reduced Telegraphic Rates.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company's Telegraph service, beginning from to-day will lower the price of telegraph rates. This is the third reduction made by this company since taking over the old Dominion Government telegraph service, upon completion of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The reduction applies to telegrams for points on the C. P. R. and its connections throughout the United States.

Ontario and Quebec rates are reduced from $1.25 day, 80c. night, $1 day, 72c. night; Nova Scotia and New Brunswick from $1.50 day, $1 night to $1 day and 75c. night; New York and other Eastern States from $1.50 day and $1 night to $1.25 day and $1 night. California is reduced from $1.20 day and 60c. night to 75c. day and 60c. night; Oregon from $1.10 day and 80c. night to 75c. day and 60c. night; Washington from 75c. to $1 day and 50c. to 75c. night to 40c. to 75c. day and 30c. to 60c. night. The cable rates throughout the world are reduced five cents per word. The rates for press dispatches meet with a corresponding reduction.

A Montrealer's Answer to His Friend.

"Yes, my dear fellow, you will truly find that Paine's Celery Compound is what you require if you would banish that dyspepsia, and the headache which troubles you so often.

"I have used it for the same troubles, and must say that its results were great and effective. I used it fourteen months ago, when I had a very bad attack of dyspepsia. I was also troubled with insomnia at the same time; the three bottles that I used made me a new man, and I have not had a touch of the trouble since."

This is the experience of thousands who have used Paine's Celery Compound for dyspepsia, indigestion and insomnia; and the remarks of a Montreal gentleman given above, are ably supported by scores of testimonials sent in every month to the proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound.

A BY-LAW

WHEREAS it is expedient to raise a sum of money to provide for construction and improvement of certain surface drains in the City of Victoria as follows:—

Approximate estimate of cost of principal sewers for surface drainage. August 20th, 1892.

Kings road, Work Estate, brick sewer 4 feet diam	$27,415.00
View street drain, brick sewer 3 feet diam and branches	20,000.00
Spring Ridge and Fernwood road 2 feet diam	6,750.00
Cook street drain 2 feet diam and branches	13,333.00

Menzies street 20 in. pipe	1,800.0
And other necessary drains not specified in above	17,322.00
Total	$100,000.00

And whereas the purpose aforesaid it is intended to raise by way of loan upon the credit of the city, the sum of $100,000.

And whereas it will require the sum of $5157 to be raised annually by special rate for the payment of the said debt and interest hereinafter mentioned,

And whereas the amount of the whole rateable property of the said corporation of the City of Victoria according to the last revised assessment roll being for the year 1891 was $17,563,148.00.

And whereas it will require an annual special rate of three-tenths of a mill in the dollar for the payment of the interest and creating an equal yearly sinking fund for payment of the principal of the said interest debt according to the Municipal Act, 1892.

PROVINCIAL HEALTH OFFICER.

The Provincial Government has reappointed Dr. Davie Provincial Health Officer, an action which the Government organ explains was taken in view of the danger from a visitation of the cholera. It is not many weeks since Dr. Davie vacated this office, and it is not surprising that his re-appointment recalls to mind the circumstances which attended his resignation. The civic authorities of Vancouver had just refused to obey one of the regulations, and instead of employing coercive measures, as in Victoria, Dr. Davie escaped from a dilemma by laying down his office. The Colonist speaks of "the wise regulations enforced by him" as the great factor in subduing the smallpox, also prophesying successful warfare on the cholera in the same manner if it should come. Now it seems quite fair to ask whether Dr. Davie will, as before, expect to stamp out the disease in other places by strictly enforcing the regulations in Victoria alone, or whether he will be health officer in fact, as well as in name, for the whole province?

ILL-TREATED POSTMEN.

Some of the letter-carriers of Victoria are suffering from another piece of Government niggardiness. This month from their munificent monthly stipend of $40 has been deducted time lost through sickness. Now, as the other letter-carriers make up by extra duty this deficiency, and all agree to do this, there is no loss occasioned to the Government by sickness. Consequently the postmen urge that no deduction should be made in their wages if they are kept from work a few days through sickness. It seems scarcely possible that any regulation of the Dominion Government should require this, and the incident points to some local interference by "the powers that be." If this is so it makes the case so much stronger, for the unfortunate postmen's superiors must know that the stipend they receive is too small already. A married man with a family cannot live decently and pay his way on the amount. The amount of $7.50 deducted from one month's wages some time ago, on the plea that there was "no appropriation," has not yet arrived, and the chances of getting it are exceedingly slim. It must be very difficult for these underpaid officials to repeat the schoolboy grace: "For what we have received may the Lord make us truly thankful." Such cheese-paring is as ridiculous as it is unjust and unfair.

THE LAW.

It seems that neither our interpretation of the law nor our estimate of the Attorney-General finds favor in the eyes of the Government organ. That is very unfortunate, for if there is one that could please us more than any other it would be the ability to please our just, mild and polite neighbor. It truly afflicts us when the worshipper of the Attorney-General, affected by the zeal of the newly made convert, applies to us such terms as "vicious," "ill-timed" and "malevolent." Nevertheless, though the Colonist be ready to get down on its knees to worship the great Davie, though it be prepared to pour out columns of Billingsgate in his behalf—all this will not do away with the moral and legal necessity of keeping within the law, any more than it will convince the people that the Attorney-General is intent on anything else but the manufacture of political capital out of the city's misfortunes. If that gentleman had been anxious to assist the City Council in its work he would not have counselled the rejection of the by-law which was meant to provide the council with the means of carrying on that work. Is it not a truly edifying spectacle to find the Attorney-General one day obstructing a perfectly legal and legitimate plan of procedure and the next trying to inveigle weak-minded aldermen into pursuing an illegal and illegitimate plan? And all this to the end that Theodore Davie may be glorified! As to having any doubts regarding the legal opinions of the Attorney-General, we may inform the Colonist that there does not appear the slightest room for doubt in this case. There is no power in the hands of the Government to set aside the enactments of the Legislature. If there were such a power in existence the people would need see to its abolition without loss of time, because it would be an exceedingly dangerous weapon in the hands of such men as Theodore Davie. No, friend Colonist, we are constrained to accept the law as it stands; it will be time enough to doubt when evidence is produced that an act of the Legislature can be rendered of none effect to suit the whim of the Attorney-General.

Harper's for October.

The October number of Harper's Magazine very appropriately opens with an article entitled "The Baptismal Font of America," by Frank H. Mason, in which a full account is given of the manner in which the Western Continent received its name. The article is accompanied by fourteen illustrations, including a fac-simile of the page in the Cosmographiæ Introductio in which the name America is first mentioned. Another article apropos of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of the New World is a scholarly essay on Columbus, by Professor Dr. S. Ruge, of Dresden, reviewing the facts which the latest researches have brought to light concerning the character and achievements of the discoverer. Theodore Child contributes an interesting paper on "Paris along the Seine," which is handsomely and profusely illustrated. Laurence Hutton's unique and very entertaining description of his "Collection of Death-Masks" is continued, with seventeen illustrations. H. C. Bunner writes an appreciative sketch of the well-known artist A. B. Frost, in which he incidentally reviews the wonderful progress which has been made in the art of book illustration during the last twenty-five years. The article is accompanied by fifteen illustrations from drawings by Mr. Frost, including a frontispiece entitled "Sorcery"; also by a portrait of Mr. Frost drawn by J. W. Alexander. R. Caton Woodville, the distinguished English artist, gives a stirring account of his experiences at "Tiger-Hunting in Mysore," which is illustrated with a number of striking pictures drawn by himself. President Charles F. Thwing, of the Western Reserve University, contributes a valuable and comprehensive article on "Education in the West." The fifth paper in James Russell Lowell's series on the Old English Dramatists for its subject "the double stars of our poetical firmament," Beaumont and Fletcher. The fiction of the number includes the continuation of Miss Wilkin's absorbing story "Jane Field," illustrated by W. T. Smedley; the eighth instalment of Mr. Howell's "The World of Chance"; and a highly entertaining tale by Thomas A. Janvier, entitled "The Efferati Family," which is also illustrated by Mr. Smedley. The number having been printed during the last illness of George William Curtis, it contains no communication from him, but instead of his usual graceful essays in the Editor's Easy Chair, there are some short articles about the Easy Chair itself and on other timely topics. The November number will contain Mr. Curtis's last contribution to the Easy Chair.

FINISH OF THE FAIR.

Notwithstanding Dull Weather a Goodly Gathering is Seen at the Grounds.

The Horse Races and the Fine Stock Prove to be the Principal Attraction.

The decision arrived at last evening by the board of management of the British Columbia Agricultural Society was that it would not be advisable to keep the exhibition open for another week. This brought the citizens out and although the weather was not bright the morning attendance was very good. In the afternoon there was another big crowd, but this evening's attendance it is expected will be the largest of the season. Those who attended to-day and those who go this evening will see just as much as those who were present at the opening. The superintendent has seen that no one removes or changes any of the exhibits, so that the hall is just as it was on Tuesday morning.

The grooms in the stock yard gave an extra touch to their charges this morning to make them look their best for the closing day, and the crowds that visited the stables to-day were just as loud in their praises as were former visitors. The winners of many prizes and diplomas, at the present and past exhibitions, had cards tacked up all around their stalls, along with pedigrees, some of which were traced back for half a century or more.

During the afternoon Finn's band played a programme of ten selections, which were enjoyed by the big crowd present. The programme for this evening is as follows:

Overture—"A Night Off".....Brooks
"Squatter Sovereignty".....Braham
Grand medley selection, introducing all the favorite melodies of Harrigan & Hart's latest production, "The Squatter Sovereignty".....
Waltz—"Sobre las Olas".....Albros Rosas
"The Darkie's Dream"—Characteristic.....Woolley
Overture—"Morning, Noon and Night"..Suppe
Scene and Aria....Solo for Clarionet.....Beyer
Prof. T. W. Trendel.
Overture.....The Bridal Rose.....Lavallee

MARVELLOUS RESULTS WILL FOLLOW!

There is not the slightest reason, dear mother, why your baby should continue to be weak, frail and puny. The agent and means for making your baby strong and healthy is near you, and the fault is yours if you do not use it.

Lactated Food is the acknowledged agent and medium for strengthening and building up your baby. The foods with which you have been feeding baby are unsuited for its present condition: and you must not expect any progress while they are continued. Indeed, we are justified in asserting that your child is likely to die, unless you speedily give it Lactated Food.

If you follow the example of other mothers, you will soon have your baby fat and healthy, strong and rugged.

Feed it on Lactated Food for one month, and you will see marvellous results.

Cemetery Returns.

The cemetery returns for the past month were, whites, 24; Chinese, 5; Jap, 1; Indian, 1; still born, 1; children under one year, 5; making a total of 31.

ARE THEY MUTINEERS?

The Crew of the British Ship Bankburn sent to Jail for Mutiny Without a Hearing.

Horrible Story Told by the Seamen of their Sufferings While on the Voyage.

Seven sailors stood in the examining room of the provincial jail. They were divesting themselves of their personal property before being led into the inner precincts of the jail, there to undergo six weeks' imprisonment. They had been convicted of mutiny before Stipendary Magistrate E. Baynes Reed, of Esquimalt. Six other sailors convicted of a similar offense had previously been entered upon the prison list and sent to serve the same time.

The thirteen tars were employed on the British ship Bankburn. The Bankburn dropped anchor in the Royal Roads yesterday. Capt. Davies preferred a charge of mutiny against them, and Officer Campbell escorted them in two batches to the Esquimalt justice. The warrant ordering their commitment stated that tney had refused to obey the orders of Capt. Davies, the master of the ship.

William Nichol, one of the alleged mutinous crew, told a TIMES man the following story:

"We did not mutiny. Do we look like a set of ruffians? All we asked was that we be given proper food. The Bankburn was freighted with coal. She sailed from Newcastle, New South Wales, on February 4th last. We touched at Valparaiso and other Chilian ports and were making for Port Townsend when Capt. Davies put into the Royal Roads and handed us over as mutineers. The cause of his action was this: Ever since we began our voyage we have been next to starving. Our food was given to us in the regulation quantities, but it was so horribly cooked, or rather not cooked at all, that though we tried to force ourselves we could not eat it. We complained to the captain. He refused to listen to us. We tried to eat our food. It made us vomit. We again complained. But no redress. The captain told us that the 16-year-old boy who acted as cook could cook meals well enough for us. He had another cook for himself and his officers. We were forced to throw away the food and lived for days on dry bread. Soon this was so bad that we could no longer eat it. And still we tried to bear bravely up.

"We took bran from the pig trough and attempted to cook our own food. When the captain learned what we were doing he forbade us even the pig trough. Then we were compelled to demand proper food or starve. We grew daily weaker and weaker from this mode of living and were getting unable to perform our duties. We told the captain that we could no longer work if we were not supplied with proper food. He replied that we would have to work; the food was good enough for us. He would not engage another cook to suit our caprices. We then asked him to be allowed to state our case before a magistrate at the next port and we would abide by his decision. We entered Royal Roads and the first thing we knew we were in jail charged with mutiny. The magistrate refused to listen to us. There are only a few of us who can speak English. The rest are foreigners and speak only a smattering of English.

I asked that we be given a chance to get a lawyer. Our request was not heeded. We have money coming to us for wages, and only ask that we be treated in a humane manner. I assure you, sir, that our thoughts were far from mutiny. And the fact that we have put up with the treatment we received for mouths is in itself an indication that rebellion was shunned by us. I wish that we could see a lawyer. We would pay him well for his trouble.

Would you not ask one to come up to us? We know nothing of the country and we feel our position keenly."

The process of divesting the prisoners of all personal property was concluded, and the prisoners walked in single file to their cells, and to what they consider to be an unjust punishment.

The names of the imprisoned crew are: Chas. Walhgren, Hermon Olson, Martin Harrison, William Nicol, Axel Anperson, Chas. M. Regnall, John Rosenbaum, Thos Hislop, Henry Marks, Chas. Peters, Robert Simpson, Michael R. Johnson, Josef Sundberg.

Will Dock at Tacoma.

It has been announced that H.M.S. Hyacinthe will be docked at Tacoma for repairs, and that she will be towed over on Monday or Tuesday by H.M.S. Nymphe. Heretofore American boats have come here to be docked. This is a case of necessity with the Hyacinthe. The Esquimalt dock is at present occupied by the Warspite, and the Hyacinthe's hull is in a terrible condition, being covered with weeds and barnacles.

An Improvement.

Two men were put to work this morning on Government street, and before long they had the roadway and open drains in a fairly decent condition. The street around the tramway rails at the corner of Government and Yates streets was raised, making it a less dangerous operation to turn that corner in a vehicle.

On Official Business.

Mr. A. W. Vowell leaves for the north this evening on the steamer Danube. He goes to Alert bay to attend to matters in connection with the Indian Department.

The Carmolite Seized.

A dispatch from San Francisco states that the Russian steamer Kotick, which arrived at the Bay City, reports the seizure of the Victoria schooner Carmolite by the Russians. No particulars of the seizure are given.

Called to a Higher Post.

Capt. Frith, who has had charge of the Salvation Army here for the past six months, leaves on Thursday morning for Toronto. She goes to fill a position of greater trust, that of captain of a training garrison for female officers.

Well Freighted for the Orient.

The steamship Victoria sailed for the Orient early this morning. She had a good freight despite the fact that there is very little movement in freight towards China and Japan. Agent H. E. Connan expects the Loo Sok about Friday next.

A Lady Physician.

Dr. Mary McNeill, who lately arrived in the city, is a graduate of Chicago medical college, and was resident physician in the Women's Hospital, Chicago, for some years. Dr. McNeill will practice in Victoria with Dr. Ernest Hall. She makes a specialty of the diseases of women and children.

Provincial Health Officer.

A special edition of the B. C. Gazette published yesterday contains the following notice of appointment. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased, under the provisions of the "Health Act," to appoint John Chapman Davie, Esquire, M. D., of the city of Victoria, to be health officer for the province.

Railway Men Here.

W. H. Hurlburt, assistant general passenger agent of the Union Pacific, with headquarters in Portland, travelling auditor Deyo of the same line, with headquarters at Walla Walla, and M. P. Benton, travelling freight and passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, were all in the city yesterday on business connected with their several lines.

Machinery for the North.

Messrs. Spratt & Gray are shipping this evening on the steamer Danube one boiler and two retorts constructed by them for the oil refinery at Refuge Bay owned by Mr. Robert Cunningham. The statement published this morning that they were made and shipped by the Albion Iron Works was erroneous. Messrs. Spratt & Gray are also putting a new shaft and propeller in the steamer Cariboo and Fly.

Competitive Plans.

A large number of plans drawn by American architects are being submitted in the present competition for the new government buildings. Over 20 now in are from the United States. Last evening's express brought six plans from the following widely separated American cities: New York, Chicago, Birmingham, Ala., Portland, Tacoma and Seattle. The plans are being opened to-day at the office of the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works.

No Wrong Was Intended.

The steamer Coquitlam came into the inner harbor and was tied up at Rithet's wharf to-day. She did not begin discharging her skins, but will before long. Captain Webster was seen at the Driard this morning. He said that at last order was being brought out of chaos in the famous Coquitlam case. "We will," said he, "discharge the skins here right away. I ordered the steamer in to the wharf this morning. The time for the hearing of the case is fast approaching, and I am almost sure of the release of the vessel. If she did do anything wrong they will be unable to prove intent to do so."

A Capable Organization.

The First Regiment Band of Seattle, which played two concerts at the exhibition, left for home last night on the City of Kingston. The music furnished by the band was one of the chief attractions of the fair. The band is an excellent one. The members showed their ability to perform classical music, but the majority of the numbers on the two programmes were pieces that everybody knew. They were played in an attractive way. The leader, Mr. T. H. Wagner, made many friends while here and will no doubt give more concerts here with his band in the future. Last evening the band played three pieces in front of the Hotel Victoria before they took their departure. The street was crowded.

Alleged Culprits for Nanaimo.

Provincial Officer William McNeill leaves for Nanaimo this afternoon with Dominico Taraniello, who is charged with the murder of John Cavalero at Northfield on Wednesday night, and with Allan Stewart, who is charged with the larceny of a railway velocipede, the property of the E. & N. Railway Company, and stolen from Nanaimo. Both go to the Nanaimo district, the former for a hearing and the latter for trial.

Part of the story of the Italian charged with murder was corroborated when Captain Adolph Ridderbjelke, late of the schooner Challenge, who was a passenger down from Alaska on the Mexico, called at the office of the provincial police. He identified Taraniello as a fellow passenger. The recognition was mutual, and the two talked for a few minutes. The Italian does not seem in the least moved and takes his confinement easily. He is certain, he says, to prove an alibi. The police here do not seem to think that the fellow can be connected with the crime.

AN AGGRIEVED REPORTER.

A Colonist Representative Denies "a Soft Impeachment."

The following letter, addressed to the Manager of the TIMES, was received this forenoon:

VICTORIA, B.C., Sept. 30th, 1892.

Dear Sir:—My attention has been called to a paragraph appearing in the TIMES of the 28th inst., headed "Not the Reporter's Fault" in which it is stated that the alleged "mixed character" of the report of the Citizens ball, appearing in the Colonist is attributed by gentlemen who profess to know whereof they speak to the wine.

Now sir, I am the reporter who attended that ball, and the insinuation made in the TIMES I denounce as absolutely false and malicious, and calculated to do me grievous injury. I must request that you cause a retraction and ample apology to be made as conspicuously as the statement complained of. I should regret to be obliged to take other steps to have the matter complained of set right. Yours aggrieved,

C. DELL-SMITH.

The writer, Mr. C. Dell-Smith, is a reporter on the Colonist, and notwithstanding his occupation or the Chief Justice's opinion of the craft in general, he is a very respectable citizen In no sense is he "a wretched reporter." He would not, the TIMES is convinced, make a "mixed" report of a ball, but as becometh a gentleman of long experience and a double-barrelled name, his description would be both accurate and graphic. Mr. Dell-Smith is an accomplished journalist, and it is a most unfortunate thing that an item should have appeared in the TIMES reflecting upon a report written by him. Without equivocation or mental reservation, therefore, the item headed "Not the Reporter's Fault," which appeared in these columns on the 28th ult. is withdrawn. The object of the TIMES was to exculpate the writer and saddle the responsibility on the wine, which it was supposed had so "mixed" the dancers (not the reporter) that even the eagle eye of Mr. Dell-Smith could not pick out correctly the partners in the set of honor. Now it is clear that the item was a libel on the wine, for which the TIMES also humbly apologizes. For some occult reason, however, the report in the Colonist was terribly "mixed," and as it was not the wine's fault, or Mr. Dell-Smith's fault, it remains for the latter to explain the following muddle:

The Colonist's "set of honor:"	The Real "set of honor:"
Mayor and Mrs. Beaven, Admiral Parrayon and Mrs. Pooley, Admiral Hotham and Mrs. Walkem, Sir Matthew B. Begbie and Mrs. Higgins, Senator Macdonald and Mrs. Macdonald, Col. Prior, M.P. and Mrs. Prior, Thos. Earle, M.P., and Mrs. Earle, Hon. J. H. Turner and Mrs. Turner.	Mayor and Mrs Nelson, Admiral Parrayon and Mrs Beaven, Lieut.-Governor Nelson and Mrs. McDonald, Admiral Hotham and Mrs. Walkem, Chief Justice Sir Matthew Baillie Begbie, Kt., and Mrs. Earle, Senator McDonald and Mrs. Pooley, Thos. Earle, M.P., and Mrs. Turner, Col. E.G. Prior, M.P. and Mrs Higgins.

The floor managers, it is reported, will bring an action for libel against the Colonist for making it appear that they had paired the distinguished participants as above, for omitting the Lieutenant-Governor's name, and for substituting the names of ladies and gentlemen who were not present.

THE NEW BUILDINGS.

Not Much Information Vouchsafed by the Commissioner.

A TIMES man politely enquired at the office of the Lands and Works Department for particulars in regard to the competitive plans for the new departmental building. Mr. Gore, the deputy, was out, and Mr. John, the assistant deputy, would not return again to-day. The newspaper man stated his mission to a clerk.

"Can't give you any information," was the curt response.

The aforesaid clerk was, with much persuasion, prevailed upon to usher the visitor into the presence of the Hon. F. G. Vernon. That gentleman stepped out of his office and walked into the general clerking department. The minister and the clerk held a short "pow-wow." The minister finally opened the door. "Where is he?" These words had reference to the whereabouts of the TIMES man.

"Oh, here you are. Well, what do you want?"

"I am a newspaper man, sir. I would like some information in regard to the new plans."

"What paper do you represent?"

"The TIMES."

"Well, we can't give you anything. The plans won't be opened for five or perhaps six weeks."

"Is not that rather indefinite?"

"Oh, that will do you. You can say there are 60 plans."

And the minister walked down the steps of the Lands and Works building. He walked in the direction of the Legislative Hall. The TIMES representative had one more question to ask.

"Could you not give me some information as to the number of foreign competitors?"

"We can't be counting them."

"Were you not to have opened the plans to-day?"

"I told you no."

"One of your clerks told me that you would."

"Can't say anything more."

And the Hon. Mr. Vernon stepped into the office of the Attorney-General.

EXCHEQUER COURT.

Several Interesting Cases Before the Bench To-Day.

The further hearing of the case of the Queen vs. Farwell was postponed yesterday until this morning, and the next case, Dixon vs. the Queen, was called. This was an action arising out of a contract entered into between A. J. Dixon and the Dominion Government, by which the former undertook to superintend the construction of the lighthouse at Plumper's Pass. When the work was completed a dispute arose between the contracting parties as to the compensation for Dixon's services, the Dominion Government offering a sum equal to something like $5 a week, while the contractor claimed $5 a day. A few witnesses were examined, and the court decided that the plaintiff was entitled to $3.50 per week and the costs of the action. Mr. Bodwell appeared for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Pooley and Helmcken for the Crown.

THE QUEEN VS. FARWELL.

The case of the Queen vs. Farwell was then again proceeded with, the Hon. A. N. Richards making an elaborate argument on behalf of the Crown and quoting numerous authorities in support of his contention. His Lordship reserved his decision.

THE QUEEN VS. CLEMES.

In May 1882 the Dominion of Canada acquired by statute lot 438, group 1, in the district of Yale, such land being situate within what is known as the railway belt. At the time of the expropriation the property was owned in fee simple by Phœbe Nelson. The Government offered to pay the defendant $59.80 as compensation for the land expropriated and in this action prayed for judgment in that amount and costs. The matter was settled out of court, the parties agreeing to a judgment for the defendant for $450 without costs. Mr. Helmcken appeared for the Crown and Mr. Eberts for the defence.

THE QUEEN VS. DEMERS.

This case is in many respects similar to the Farwell case. On Sept. 10th, 1883, Dunbar, Wilson and Filmore acquired a pre-emption right to certain property in the Spallumcheen Valley near Enderby, which they abandoned or disposed of to Demers on Aug. 29th, 1886. On Nov. 29th, 1883, a reservation was put on the lands in aid of the Pacific railway. A crown grant was issued to Demers on July 31st, 1889, by the Government of British Columbia and now the Dominion Government claims that the land having been reserved and subsequently conveyed to the Dominion, the provincial government could not issue a crown grant on the strength of Demers' pre-emption right acquired in 1885, nor could it issue a grant by reason of the first pre-emption in 1883, as that was subsequently abandoned. The defence, on the other hand, contends that the first pre-emption entitled the pre-emptor to a crown grant as soon as the necessary conditions had been fulfilled, and that all lands held by pre-emption were excepted from the lands reserved for the railway belt. The court adjourned until Monday at 10 o'clock, when the argument will be resumed. The Attorney General appeared for the defence, and Hon. A. N. Richards and Mr. Helmcken for the crown.

A Menace to Public Health.

A child belonging to a family named Keeler living on Kane street, died to-day of diphtheria and no attempt has been made to prepare the body for burial or to prevent numbers of other children going in and out of the house. The neighbors are thoroughly alarmed and think that the health officers should look into the matter without delay.

Wine and Women Bring Trouble to William Farmer.

William Farmer told Magistrate Macrae in the police court this morning that last night he had been robbed by Clara Morrison. Clara Morrison was in the dock and laughed at the witness as he was giving his testimony. Farmer said that he went into his cabin last night. The Morrison woman followed him. Farmer went to get drinks and she robbed him in the meantime of a gold ring and $6 in cash. She was gone when Farmer returned.

Officer Redgrave testified that he went to this woman's rooms and asked her for the ring she had stolen. She handed over the stolen property. The woman protested that Farmer gave her the ring and that she did not rob him of any money.

Chief Sheppard asked the court to help him put a stop to these women frequenting cabins. The sentence was three months with hard labor.

FROM THE GOLD COUNTRY.

News of the Noted Up-Country Mines by a Late Arrival.

James Bell, of Lillooet, is in the city on a business and pleasure visit. He reports that the placer mines of Lillooet this season will give a larger yield of gold than last year, and that in quartz practically nothing is being done.

The "old reliable" claim of the Lillooet Hydraulic Co., on the banks of the Fraser about a mile from town, will wash up for the season $8000 or $10,000—about the usual yield.

The Scum-Scum Co., on Tyaxon creek, is past the prospecting period and is now taking out "pay."

The McDonald Company on Bridge River, which was unfortunate in having its wing dam carried away three times, has succeeded in turning the stream from its regular channel and is now taking out heavy gold. On this claim there are now ten men employed.

The Vancouver Enterprise Company for years has been running a tunnel to strike the bed of an old channel on Cayuse Creek, by means of a short tunnel from the main one being run, has reached gravel and expects to take out pay in a few days.

A number of Chinamen have returned from Cariboo and Kootenay where they were engaged last year in digging ditches for the large hydraulic companies, and also on the K. & C. Railway, and have done a considerable amount of work along the bars of the Fraser.

WILL BE HELD EARLIER.

Next Year's Agricultural Exhibition to be Held in August—New Officers Elected

The members of the B.C. Agricultural Society held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon, there being a very large attendance. Messrs. N. Shakespeare and D. R. Ker, a committee appointed to award medals and special prizes, read their report as published yesterday. A few minor complaints from exhibitors were satisfactorily settled. The petition to keep the exhibition open till next Wednesday was referred to the board of management.

Mr. D. R. Ker moved, "That this meeting is of opinion that it is in the interest of the British Columbia Agricultural Association to hold the next fair not later than the 10th of August, 1893."

Mr. Ker thought it would be advisable to make this change as at present bad weather usually interfered with the exhibition. He contended that it would be better for all concerned.

There was a long discussion on the motion which was finally carried with one dissenting voice.

The officers for the ensuing year were then elected as follows: President, W. H. Ellis, Victoria; First Vice-President, H. F. Page, Matsqui; Second Vice President, Dr. S. F. Tolmie, Victoria; Treasurer, G. A. McTavish; Secretary, W. H. Bainbridge; Trustees, Messrs. N. Shakespeare, D. R. Ker, G. A. McTavish, C. E. Renouf and J. H. Todd. Board of Management. Trouble Brewing in Lancashire.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—A storm has been raised by the decision of the Master Spinners' meeting in Manchester today, to reduce wages. It was expected by the men that at the last moment the master spinners would weaken, and adopt the other means of harmony suggested by the operatives. The prevalent opinion is that the master spinners have made a mistake. The operatives are splendidly organized, better, probably, than any other union. They have a large reserve fund, and they are in the mood for a long struggle. Lancashire strikers have usually been the bitterest. The last great cotton strike, in 1887, was characterized by riot and bloodshed, the burning of mills and the exemplary punishment of the leaders of the men. Several of the leaders are still in prison on account of their participation in the violent demonstrations of those days. It is likely that similar scenes of violence are ahead. The Federation of Master Cotton Spinners of Lancashire have resolved that, although it appeared that no more than seventy-seven and one-half per cent. of the employers had returned favorable replies, a month's notice should forthwith be given of a reduction of wages. This means a general strike of the cotton operatives of Lancashire.

STOCKTON, Cal., Sept. 30.—W. D. Wright, of Tuolumne, is in town and says he saw Evans and Sontag yesterday. Wright says he is a rancher on the road between Tuolumne City and Grayson. He says: "Evans and Sontag came to my home yesterday morning about 10; they were on horseback and came from the south. The animals seemed blown and had evidently had hard work. Evans asked me if I could give them something to eat. In reply to their request for food I invited them into the house and asked my wife to cook some breakfast. Before eating Sontag took the horses into the stable and fed them. From the conversation of the men it seemed to me that they are making for some pass in the coast range, and from there will go to San Francisco and leave the country by boat. The men made a hearty meal and then asked for a bed; Evans kept watch while Sontag slept, and vice versa. They remained at my place for over two hours and seemed as unconcerned as possible, though always on the alert and watchful for an attack. When they left my house they forced me to take my wife and children to a room in the second story which has no window and lock them in. Then I was made to accompany them some few miles along the road to the northwest. About three miles from my house they took me into a field and tied me to a tree, saying, 'We are sorry to do this, but doubtless you will be found in a few hours.' With that they left me."

Looks Like Jack's Work.

VIENNA, Sept. 30.—The police president in this city says that numerous points of similarity between Jack the Ripper and Szermedy, who killed himself in the Fressburg police station, have been found, but the connecting link of evidence is still missing. Szermedy was here between August 2nd and 13th, at which time he came in contact with the police and was discharged by them as an American surgeon on his way to America.

DR. TALMAGE IN LONDON.

The Brooklyn Divine Still Attracts Immense Congregations in the Large English Cities.

A Discourse on the Struggles of the Christian With the Evils of Earth.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The great outpourings to hear Dr. Talmage preach continue. Probably the greatest demonstration during the past month was that at the town hall, Birmingham, when he delivered three addresses the same evening to audiences aggregating 80,000 persons. At Sheffield, Derby, Leicester, Exeter and Bristol also phenomenal audiences assembled, the most cordial welcome being everywhere accorded him. The sermon selected for publication this week is entitled "Celestial Sympathizers," the text being taken from I Cor. xv, 32, "I have fought with beasts at Ephesus," and Hebrews xii, 1, "Seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses."

Crossing the Alps by the Mont Cenis pass, or through the Mont Cenis tunnel, you are in a few hours set down at Verona, Italy, and in a few minutes begin examining one of the grandest ruins of the world—the amphitheater. The whole building sweeps around you in a circle. You stand in the arena where the combat was once fought or the race run, and on all sides the seats rise, tier above tier, until you count forty elevations, or galleries, as I shall see fit to call them, in which sat the senators, the kings and the twenty-five thousand excited spectators.

At the sides of the arena and under the galleries are the cages in which the lions and tigers are kept without food, until frenzied with hunger and thirst they are let out upon some poor victim, who with his sword and alone is condemned to meet them. I think that Paul himself once stood in such a place, and that it was not only figuratively but literally that he had "fought with beasts at Ephesus."

GATHERING TO THE SHOW.

The gala day has come. From all the world the people are pouring into Verona. Men, women and children, orators and senators, great men and small, thousands upon thousands come, until the first gallery is full, and the second, the third, the fourth, the fifth—all the way up to the twentieth, all the way up to the thirtieth, all the way up to the fortieth. Every place is filled. Immensity of audience sweeping the great circle. Silence! The time for the contest has come. A Roman official leads forth the victim into the arena. Let him get his sword with firm grip into his right hand. The twenty-five thousand sit breathlessly watching. I hear the door at the side of the arena creak open. Out plunges the half starved lion, his tongue athirst for blood, and with a roar that brings all the galleries to their feet he rushes against the sword of the combatant.

Do you know how strong a stroke a man will strike when his life depends upon the first thrust of his blade? The wild beast, lame and bleeding, slinks back toward the side of the arena; then, rallying his wasting strength, he comes up with fiercer eye and more terrible roar than ever, only to be driven back with a fatal wound, while the combatant comes in with stroke after stroke, until the monster is dead at his feet, and the twenty-five thousand people clap their hands and utter a shout that makes the city tremble.

Sometimes the audience came to see a race; sometimes to see gladiators fight each other, until the people, compassionate for the fallen, turned their thumbs down as an appeal that the vanquished be spared; and sometimes the combat was with wild beasts.

To one of the Roman amphitheatrical audiences of one hundred thousand people Paul refers when he says, "We are compassed about with so great a crowd of witnesses." The direct reference in the last passage is made to a race; but elsewhere, having discussed that, I take now Paul's favorite idea of the Christian life as a combat.

A BATTLE BEFORE YOU.

The fact is that every Christian man has a lion to fight. Yours is a bad temper. The gates of the arena have been opened, and this tiger has come out to destroy your soul. It has lacerated you with many a wound. You have been thrown by it time and again, but in the strength of God you have arisen to drive it back. I verily believe you will conquer. I think that the temptation is getting weaker and weaker. You have given it so many wounds that the prospect is that it will die and you shall be victor, through Christ. Courage, brother! Do not let the sands of the arena drink the blood of your soul!

Your lion is the passion for strong drink. You may have contended against it twenty years, but it is strong of body and thirsty of tongue. You have tried to fight it back with broken bottle or empty wine flask. Nay! that is not the weapon. With one horrible roar he will seize thee by the throat and rend thee limb from limb. Take this weapon, sharp and keen—reach up and get it from God's armory—the Sword of the Spirit. With that thou mayest drive him back and conquer!

But why specify when every man and woman has a lion to fight? If there be one here who has no besetting sin, let him speak out, for him have I offended. If you have not fought the lion, it is because you have let the lion eat you up. This very moment the contest goes on. The Trojan celebration, where ten thousand gladiators fought and eleven thousand wild beasts were slain, was not so terrific a struggle as that which at this moment goes on in many a soul. The combat was for the life of the body; this is for the life of the soul. That was with wild beasts from the jungle; this is with the roaring lion of hell.

Men think when they contend against an evil habit that they have to fight it all alone. No! They stand in the center of an immense circle of sympathy. Paul had been reciting the names of Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Joseph, Gideon and Barak, and then says, "Being compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses."

THE CLOUD OF WITNESSES.

Before I get through I will show you that your fight is an arena around which circle, in galleries above each other, all the kindling eyes and all the sympathetic hearts of the ages; and at every victory gained there comes down the thundering applause of a great multitude that no man can number. "Being compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses."

On the first elevation of the ancient amphitheater, on the day of a celebration, sat Tiberius or Augustus, or the reigning king. So, in the great arena of spectators that watch our struggles, and in the first divine gallery, as I shall call it, sits our King, one Jesus. On his head are many crowns. The Roman emperor got his place by cold blooded conquests, but our King hath come to his place by the broken hearts healed, and the tears wiped away, and the souls redeemed. The Roman emperor sat with folded arms, indifferent as to whether the swordsman or the lion beat, but our King's sympathies are all with us. Nay, unheard of condescension! I see him come down from the gallery into the arena to help us in the fight, shouting until all up and down his voice is heard: "Fear not! I will help thee! I will strengthen thee by the right hand of my power!"

They gave to the men in the arena in the olden time food to thicken their blood, so that it would flow slowly, and that for a longer time the people might gloat over the scene. But our King has no pleasure in our wounds, for we are bone of his bone, flesh of his flesh, blood of his blood.

In all the anguish of our heart
The man of sorrows bore a part.

Once in the ancient amphitheater a lion with one paw caught the combatant's sword and with his other paw caught his shield. The man took his knife from his girdle and slew the beast. The king, sitting in the gallery, said, "That was not fair; the lion must be slain by a sword." Other lions were turned out and the poor victim fell. You cry, "Shame! shame!" at such meanness. But the King in this case is our brother, and he will see that we have fair play. He will forbid the rushing out of more lions than we can meet; he will not suffer us to be tempted above that we are able. Thank God! The King is in the gallery! His eyes are on us. His heart is with us. His hand will deliver us. "Blessed are all they who put their trust in him."

ALL THE GOOD ANGELS SYMPATHIZE.

I look again, and I see the angelic gallery. There they are—the angel that swung the sword at the gate of Eden, the same that Ezekiel saw upholding the throne of God, and from which I look away, for the splendor is insufferable. Here are the guardian angels. That one watched a patriarch; this one protected a child. That one has been pulling a soul out of temptation! All these are messengers of light! Those drove the Spanish armada on the rocks. This turned Sennacherib's living hosts into a heap of one hundred and eighty-five thousand corpses. Those, yonder, chanted the Christmas carol over Bethlehem until the chant awoke the shepherds. These, at creation, stood in the balcony of heaven and serenaded the newborn world wrapped in swaddling clothes of light. And there, holier and mightier than all, is Michael, the archangel. To command an earthly host gives dignity; but this one is leader of the ten thousand chariots of God, and of the ten thousand times ten thousand angels. I think God gives command to the archangel, and the archangel to the seraphim, and the seraphim to the cherubim, until all the lower orders of heaven hear the command and go forth on the high behest.

Now, bring on your lions! Who can fear? All the spectators in the angelic gallery are our friends. "He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder; the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under foot."

Though the arena be crowded with temptations we shall, with the angelic help, strike them down in the name of our God and leap on their fallen carcasses! Oh, bending throng of bright angelic faces and swift wings and lightning feet! I hail you today from the dust and struggle of the arena!

THE PROPHETS AND APOSTLES.

I look again and I see the gallery of the prophets and apostles. Who are those mighty ones up yonder? Hosea and Jeremiah and Daniel and Isaiah and Paul and Peter and John and James. There sits Noah waiting for all the world to come into the ark, and Moses, waiting till the last Red sea shall divide; and Jeremiah, waiting for the Jews to return; and John, of the Apocalypse, waiting for the swearing of the angel that Time shall be no longer. Glorious spirits! Ye were howled at, ye were stoned, ye were spit upon! They have been in this fight themselves, and they are all with us. Daniel knows all about lions. Paul fought with beasts at Ephesus.

In the ancient amphitheater the people got so excited that they would shout from the galleries to the men in the arena: "At it again!" "Forward!" "One more stroke!" "Look out!" "Fall back!" "Huzza! Huzza!" So in that gallery, prophetic and apostolic, they cannot keep their peace. Daniel cries out, "Thy God will deliver thee from the mouth of the lions!" David exclaims, "He will not suffer thy foot to be moved!" Isaiah calls out: "Fear not! I am with thee! Be not dismayed!" Paul exclaims, "Victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!" That throng of prophets and apostles cannot keep still. They make the welkin ring with shouting and hallelujahs.

THE NOBLE ARMY OF MARTYRS.

I look again and I see the gallery of the martyrs. Who is that? Hugh Latimer, sure enough! He would not apologize for the truth preached, and so he died the night before swinging from the bedpost in perfect glee at the thought of emancipation. Who are that army of six thousand six hundred and sixty-six? They are the Theban legion, who died for the faith. Here is a larger host in magnificent array—eight hundred and eighty-four thousand—who perished for Christ in the persecutions of Diocletian.

Yonder is a family group, Felicitas of Rome, and her children. While they were dying for the faith she stood encouraging them. One son was whipped to death by thorns; another was flung from a rock; another was beheaded. At last the mother became a martyr. There they are together—a family group in heaven! Yonder is John Bradford, who said in the fire, "We shall have a merry supper with the Lord tonight!" Yonder is Henry Voes, who exclaimed as he died, "If I had ten heads they should all fall off for Christ!"

The great throng of the martyrs! They had hot lead poured down their throats; horses were fastened to their hands, and other horses to their feet, and thus they were pulled apart; they had their tongues pulled out by red hot pincers; they were sewed up in the skins of animals and then thrown to the dogs; they were daubed with combustibles and set on fire! If all the martyrs' stakes that had been kindled could be set at proper distances they would make the midnight all the world over bright as noonday.

THE EMINENT CHRISTIANS.

And now they sit yonder in the martyrs' gallery. For them the fires of persecution have gone out. The swords are sheathed and the mob hushed. Now they watch us with an all observing sympathy. They know all the pain, all the hardship, all the anguish, all the injustice, all the privation. They cannot keep still. They cry: "Courage! The fire will not consume. The floods cannot drown. The lions cannot devour! Courage! down there in the arena."

What, are they all looking? This night we answer back the salutation they give, and cry, "Hail! sons and daughters of the fire!"

I look again, and I see another gallery—that of eminent Christians. What strikes me strangely is the mixing in companionship of those who on earth could not agree. There is Albert Barnes, and around him the presbytery who tried him for heterodoxy! Yonder is Lyman Beecher, and the church court that denounced him! Stranger than all, there is John Calvin and James Arminius! Who would have thought that they would sit so lovingly together? There is George Whitefield and the ministers who would not let him come into their pulpits because they thought him a fanatic. There are the sweet singers, Toplady, Montgomery, Charles Wesley, Isaac Watts and Mrs. Sigourney. If heaven had had no music before they went up they would have started the singing.

And there the band of missionaries—David Abeel, talking of China redeemed, and John Scudder, of India saved, and David Brainard, of the aborigines evangelized, and Mrs. Adoniram Judson, whose prayers for Burmah took heaven by violence! All these Christians are looking into the arena. Our struggle is nothing to theirs! Do we in Christ's cause suffer from the cold? They walked Greenland's icy mountains. Do we suffer from the heat? They sweltered in the tropics. Do we get fatigued? They fainted with none to care for them but cannibals. Are we persecuted? They were anathematized. And as they look from their gallery and see us falter in the presence of the lions, I seem to hear Isaac Watts addressing us in his old hymn, only a little changed:

Must you be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize
Or sailed through bloody seas?

Toplady shouts in his old hymn:

Your harps, ye trembling saints,
Down from the willows take;
Loud to the praise of love divine,
Bid every string awake.

While Charles Wesley, the Methodist, breaks forth in his favorite words, a little varied:

A charge to keep you have,
A God to glorify;
A never dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky!

OUR FRIENDS IN HEAVEN.

I look again and I see the gallery of our departed. Many of those in the other galleries we have heard of, but these we knew. Oh, how familiar their faces! They sat at our tables, and we walked to the house of God in company. Have they forgotten us? Those fathers and mothers started us on the road of life. Are they careless as to what becomes of us? And those children—do they look on with stolid indifference as to whether we win or lose this battle for eternity? Nay; I see that child running its hand over your brow and saying, "Father, do not fret;" "Mother, do not worry."

They remember the day they left us. They remember the agony of the last farewell. Though years in heaven, they know our faces. They remember our sorrows. They speak our names. They watch this fight for heaven. Nay; I see them rise up and lean over and wave before us their recognition and encouragement. That gallery is not full. They are keeping places for us. After we have slain the lion they expect the King to call us, saying, "Come up higher!" Between the hot struggles in the arena I wipe the sweat from my brow and stand on tiptoe, reaching up my right hand to clasp theirs in rapturous handshaking, while their voices come ringing down from the gallery crying, "Be thou faithful unto death and you shall have a crown!"

But here I pause, overwhelmed with the majesty and the joy of the scene! Gallery of the King! Gallery of angels! Gallery of prophets and apostles! Gallery of martyrs! Gallery of saints! Gallery of friends and kindred! Oh, majestic circles of light and love! Throngs! Throngs! Throngs! How shall we stand the gaze of the universe? Myriads of eyes beaming on us! Myriads of hearts beating in sympathy for us! How shall we ever dare to sin again! How shall we ever become discouraged again! How shall we ever feel lonely again!

With God for us, and angels for us, and prophets and apostles for us, and the great souls of the ages for us, and our glorified kindred for us—shall we give up the fight and die? No! Son of God, who didst die to save us No! ye angels, whose wings are spread forth to shelter us. No! ye prophets and apostles, whose warnings startle us. No! ye loved ones, whose arms are outstretched to receive us. No! we will never surrender!

Sure I must fight if I would reign—
Be faithful to my Lord;
And bear the Cross, endure the pain,
Supported by thy Word.

Thy saints in all this glorious war
Shall conquer, though they die;
They see the triumph from afar
And seize it with their eye.

When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thine armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

My hearers, shall we die in the arena or rise to join our friends in the gallery? Through Christ we may come off more than conquerors. A soldier, dying in the hospital, rose up in bed the last moment and cried, "Here! Here!" His attendants put him back on his pillow and asked him why he shouted "Here!" "Oh, I heard the roll call of heaven and I was only answering to my name!" I wonder whether, after this battle of life is over, our names will be called in the muster roll of the pardoned and glorified, and with the joy of heaven breaking upon our souls we shall cry, "Here! Here!"

The Japan Mail says:—The relations of China to Korea have for many years been a subject of investigation of which the Japanese never seem to weary. Every scrap of information bearing on the question is eagerly sought for and published in the vernacular papers. The Jiji Shimpo is specially earnest when dealing with this subject. In a recent issue it furnishes a resume of a memorial addressed by a certain Chinese statesman, whose name is not given, to the King of Korea, which memorial appeared in a Tientsin paper at the end of last month. After expressing regret that Korea is so poverty stricken and that her King is so blind to the dangers to which the country is exposed, the memorial proceeds to proffer the following advice:—(1) Neglect not to send your tributary offering to China. (2) Do not abandon your native costume. (3) Allow your high officials to travel in foreign lands. (4) Let not their social rank alone induce you to place confidence in men. (5) Improve the state of your army. (6) Open up telegraphic communication with the interior of your country. (7) Concede no tariff rights to foreigners. (8) Forbid opium smoking. (9) Lighten your punishments of crime. (10) Establish schools for foreign study in your own land and do not send your young men to Japan for study.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A BY-LAW

TO ENABLE the Corporation of the City of Victoria to borrow the sum of twenty five thousand dollars for the purpose therein set forth.

Whereas it is necessary that the streets and sidewalks should be maintained and bridges improved and constructed, and whereas an insufficient sum of the present year's unexpended revenue is at this time available for such work, it is therefore deemed expedient to raise a sum of money for the above purposes.

And whereas for the purposes aforesaid it is intended to raise by way of loan upon the credit of the city the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars,

And whereas it will require the sum of $1,280.00 to be raised annually by special rate for the payment of the debt and interest as hereinafter mentioned.

And whereas the amount of the whole rateable property of the said Corporation of the City of Victoria according to the revised assessment roll, for the year 1891, was $7,[illegible]

And whereas it will require an annual special rate of ¾ per cent of a mill in the dollar for the payment of the interest and the creating an equal yearly sinking fund for paying the principal of the said interest debt, according to the Municipal Act, 1892.

And whereas it is intended to reduce the general rate so that the said Special rate shall not increase the total rate of taxation.

Be it therefore enacted by the Corporation of the City of Victoria as follows:

SECTION 1.—It shall be lawful for the Mayor of the Corporation of the City of Victoria to borrow upon the credit of the said Corporation, by way of the debentures hereinafter mentioned, from any person or persons, body or bodies corporate who may be willing to advance the same as a loan, a sum of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of $25,000.00 currency, or sterling money at the rate of $4.86 2-3rds dollars to the one pound sterling, and to cause all such sums so raised or received to be paid into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Corporation for the purpose and with the object hereinbefore recited.

SECTION 2.—It shall be lawful for the said Mayor to cause any number of debentures to be made for such sums as may be required, not exceeding, however, the sum of $25,000 either in currency or sterling money (at the rate of $4.86 2-3 dollars to the one pound sterling) as may be required, each of the said debentures being of the amount of $1,000 or its sterling equivalent at the rate aforesaid, and all such debentures shall be sealed with the seal of the said Corporation and signed by the Mayor thereof.

SECTION 3.—The debentures shall be made payable in fifty years from the date hereinafter mentioned for this By-law to take effect, at the office of the Treasurer of the said Corporation in the City Hall, Victoria, and shall have attached to them coupons for the payment of interest, and the signature of the Mayor or of the Clerk of the Corporation respecting to the coupons may be affixed by printed, stamped or lithographed fac simile.

SECTION 4.—The said debentures shall bear interest at the rate of 4½ per cent. per annum from the date thereof, which interest shall be payable half-yearly at the office of the said Treasurer.

SEC. (5). For the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the payment of the said debentures and the interest to become due thereon, an equal special rate of 3-40th of a mill in the dollar shall in addition to all other rates be levied and collected in each year upon all rateable property within the City of Victoria during the continuance of the said debentures or any of them.

SECTION 6.—This By-law shall before the final passage thereof receive the assent of the electors of the said Corporation in the manner provided for by the Municipal Act, 1892, and shall take effect on the 14th day of October, 1892.

SECTION 7.—This By-law may be cited as the "Street Loan By-Law, 1892."

Passed the Municipal Council this 29th day of September, 1892.

TAKE NOTICE

That the above is a true copy of the proposed by-law upon which the vote of the Municipality will be taken at Barnes' building, Bastion Square, for the Centre Ward; at the City Hall, corner of Pandora and Douglas streets, for the North Ward, and at a building situated on the east side of Government street, between Broughton and Courtney streets, and known as No. 27, for the South Ward, in the City of Victoria, on Tuesday, the eleventh day of October next, and that the poll will be kept open between the hours of eight o'clock a.m. and four p.m.

EXTRACTS FROM THE "CONSOLIDATED HEALTH BY-LAW."

ACCUMULATION OF FILTH.

No person shall permit or suffer the accumulation, so as to be a nuisance, of any offal, filth, refuse, stagnant water, or other offensive matter or thing upon his premises, or on any vacant lot belonging to him, or for the owner or lessee of which he is the agent.

No person shall place on any land or in or upon any street, road, or highway, any manure or other refuse matter, or any dirt or filth which is, or is likely to become, a nuisance.

No person shall convey or cause to be conveyed through any street, road, or highway, any night-soil, swill, or other filth or offensive matter dangerous to health, between the hours of six in the morning and twelve in the evening, or at any time except in a proper covered cart or vehicle, so as to prevent slopping or spilling.

Every tenant or occupier of a building shall dispose of all animal and vegetable refuse from such building or on the premises occupied therewith, either by burning the same or by placing it in a proper covered receptacle, the contents of which he shall cause to be removed at least once every week.

No person shall throw into, or leave in or upon, any street, court, square, road, lane, alley, wharf, public enclosure, vacant lot, pond, or body of water, any dead animal, dirt, sawdust, soot, ashes, cinders, shavings, hair, shreds, manure, fish shells, waste water or filth of any kind, or any refuse, animal, or vegetable matter whatever.

DRAINAGE AND PRIVIES.

The owner, lessee, agent, or person having the care of any ground, yard, vacant lot, or other property where stagnant water or other nuisance exists, abutting on any street through which a common sewer shall have been constructed shall cause the same to be effectually drained into such common sewer.

The owner, lessee, agent, or occupier of any building or premises used as a dwelling house, hotel, restaurant, saloon, shop, store, office, factory, wash-house, or otherwise, shall furnish the same with a sufficient drain under ground to carry off all waste or foul water or liquid filth; and no such drain shall empty or discharge into or upon any street, road, or highway, or any open drain thereon, unless in the opinion of the Mayor and Council the same be detrimental to the public health.

All vaults and privies shall be made tight, so that the contents thereof cannot escape therefrom, and as remote from any dwelling, well, or water tank as practicable.

OVERCROWDING.

No person shall let or occupy, or suffer to be occupied, as a dwelling or lodging, any room which—

(a.) Does not contain at all times at least 384 cubic feet of space for each person occupying the same;

And every room in which a person passes the night, or is found between midnight and five o'clock in the forenoon, shall be deemed to be occupied as a dwelling or lodging within the meaning of this section.

SLAUGHTER-HOUSES.

No person shall erect, open, or use any slaughter-house within the limits of the City of Victoria.

Whenever a person suffering from smallpox, cholera, or any other disease of a malignant character dangerous to the public health, is an inmate of any hotel or boarding house, the keeper, or one of the keepers, of such hotel or boarding-house shall immediately give notice thereof to the Medical Health Officer or the Sanitary Inspector, who shall thereupon take such steps as may be deemed necessary to prevent the spread of such disease.

Every medical practitioner attending or visiting any person who is suffering from smallpox, cholera, or any other disease of a malignant character dangerous to the public health, shall immediately give notice thereof to the Medical Health Officer or the Sanitary Inspector, who shall thereupon take such steps as may be deemed necessary to prevent the spread of such disease.

Any officer of the Corporation may seize, and under the direction of the Medical Health Officer, the Mayor or the Sanitary Inspector, destroy any tainted or unwholesome meat, poultry, fish, or other article of food exposed or offered for sale.

PENALTY.

Every person guilty of an infraction of any of the provisions of this by-law shall, upon conviction thereof, in a summary manner, before the Police Magistrate or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction in the City, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars, and costs if ordered; and if such penalty, and costs if ordered, be not paid immediately or within such period as such Police Magistrate or Justices may appoint, the same may be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, or such offender may be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three calendar months, unless such penalty, and costs if ordered, be sooner paid.
